

“...one of the most famous,
interesting and powerful women in America, if not the world.”*

Learn about an American healer and spiritual visionary, at a free talk entitled “A great American woman and spiritual healer and her integration of spirituality and science: Mary Baker Eddy” given by Maryl Walters of St. Louis, Missouri. She will also touch on other women from history who have explored the power of thought.

Maryl Walters lectures widely as a member of the Christian Science Board of Lectureship. Her national speaking tours include inter-denominational and academic forums.

The program will include music and refreshments starting at 6:00 pm, the talk at 6:30 pm, and a Q&A session following.
